VICTORIA UNIVERSITY TAFE

Victoria University's hairdressing program was awarded three gold stars, the top level of distinction, by the Institute for Trade Skills Excellence (ITSE).

VU was nominated for ITSE's star rating scheme by the Hairdressing and Beauty Industry Association of Victoria, the state's peak industry body.

VU offers a broad range of courses from certificate II to diploma level in hair and beauty and continues to keep in tune with the needs of industry. Hairdressing is one of eight industries suffering a skills shortage.

VU students regularly take out the annual HBIA awards, further evidence of how good VU's personal services programs are. This year, VU students won Outstanding Student Awards for: pre-apprentice, beauty services, stage one hairdressing, Diploma of Make-up, trainee beauty. To give your career a head start, make sure you get along to VU's Hair and Beauty Careers Expo on August 30. Call 1300 VICUNI or go to www.vu.edu.au
